

MARTIN W. KAPPEL THEATER

REQUIRED INTRODUCTION

Introduce yourself.

Welcome audience to the Martin W. Kappel Theater.

There is not smoking allowed anywhere in this building at any time.

No food or drink is allowed in the theater at any time.

NEW YORK STATE FIRE CODE requires pointing out fire exits:

- Two center aisles exit into lobby area and out front and side doors.
- Front of theater - Exit out door to your left down hallway to rear of building and go right out onto Maple Street.
- Balcony - Exit to upper lobby and downstairs out door onto Maple Street.

RESTROOMS

- The handicapped accessible restrooms are located in the rear of the building (out door to left of the audience, down the hall to the left).
- Women's restroom is just off the first floor lobby.
- Men's restroom is upstairs off the balcony lobby.

PARKING:

- There is no parking on the residential side of the building. We have been asked to advise our audience that if the police find any cars there, or blocking driveways, these vehicles will be towed. It is also necessary to alert people that parking in the fire lanes, or on the residential side of the building, is not permitted even for handicap access. Violators will be towed at their own expense.
- As a courtesy, please turn off all cellular phones and beepers for the course of the performance.

Thank you for coming to the Martin W. Kappel Theater. Enjoy the performance.
